Club Award April 26, 2025 Doug Hamlin, Helen Swingle, Mike Luongo, Bob Barr, Josh Savani

Helen gets our Club national NRA recognition.

Made possible by her impressive and detailed submission, which Helen crafted specifically for the NRA's review, our Club was selected for the NRA's annual "NRA Outstanding Club Award."

Thank you, Helen, for all the work you put into this. Thank you also to you and Mike for traveling to Atlanta to accept the award on our behalf.

Although there are over 10,000 NRA-recognized Clubs, Helen did not know how many Clubs applied this year. Still, she says that many attendees at the conference, when they saw her name badge with our winning status, came up to her and said how many years they had applied and how difficult it was to achieve.

The inset is the banner that Ryan Stickle had printed and hung at our Club entrance announcing this prestigious award.

We can all start bragging to our friends and fellow members, especially those from other Clubs, that we hold this distinction.

Please take your used backer boards home. DO NOT leave them at the range. Thank You!

Member Spotlight

This month, we highlight Greg Galindo

Greg has been a member since 2020 and currently serves as our Vice President, as well as one of our NRA Range Safety Officers. Previously, he served as our Chief Safety Officer for three years. You will almost always see him at the Club at meetings, work parties, events, and leagues.

Greg is retired and had a career in law enforcement, including stints in Ogdensburg, West Palm Beach, and Homeland Security at Picatinny Arsenal.

He was also a Master Photographer. When he was with Ritz Camera, he photographed weddings, car shows, models, and political events. His most memorable photographs were taken when he worked for the Mayor's Office of Baltimore, where he photographed Bill Clinton's second inauguration at the Baltimore Convention Center in 1997.

Greg recently got some excellent news after his last round of cancer treatments. We ask that all our club members keep him in their prayers for a complete recovery.
